AASCA PROTEST FORM AND PROCEDURES

This form is to be completed by Athletic Directors or duly-designated School Administrators to file a formal protest concerning an AASCA event. The only grounds for protest are the misinterpretation of a rule of the sport or of an AASCA rule by an official. No protest concerning the official's judgment during a contest will be accepted.

If a coach feels that a referee has misinterpreted a rule, or that an AASCA rule is being misinterpreted or misapplied, then the coach must lodge a protest immediately. The referees, tournament director and opposing coach will meet and attempt to resolve the problem at that time. Should the matter not be resolved satisfactorily, then a protest form should be completed after the game and submitted before the next contest. The host-site General Director along with the Tournament Director and an Athletic Director from another, uninvolved school present, or an uninvolved Coach will meet and make a final and binding decision on the protest.
